Medicare

Medicare is a health insurance program for:

- people age 65 or older,
- people under age 65 with certain disabilities, and
- people of all ages with End-Stage Renal Disease (permanent kidney failure requiring dialysis or a kidney transplant)

Medicare has three parts:

Part A (Hospital Insurance) helps pay for hospital care, skilled nursing care, home health care, hospice care and other services.

Part B (Medical Insurance) helps pay for outpatient medical services such as doctors' services, x-rays and tests, physical, occupational and speech therapy, outpatient hospital care, ambulance service, medical supplies and equipment and other medical services.

Medicare Prescription Drug Coverage Beginning January 1st 2006, Medicare prescription drug coverage helps pay for prescription drug costs.

Medicare Options

People with Medicare can select health care coverage under the Original Medicare Plan or one of the Medicare Advantage Plans. Both options cover all Part A and Part B benefits. People with Medicare can get Medicare prescription drug coverage under Original Medicare or a Medicare Advantage Plan. Medicare prescription drug coverage starts January 1st, 2006.

Original Medicare

The Original Medicare Plan is a fee-for-service plan managed by the Federal Government. You can go to any doctor, hospital or other provider that accepts Medicare. The Original Medicare does not pay for all the costs for Medicare covered services.

Medicare Advantage Plans (HMOs, PPOs etc)

Medicare Advantage is insurance provided by private companies that contract to Medicare to provide Medicare Part A and Part B services. Medicare Advantage Plan members generally get all of their Medicare covered health care through the plan's network. Most plans provide limited drug coverage through December 31, 2005. Many plans are offering Medicare prescription drug coverage to start January 1, 2006. Some plans provide additional services not covered by Medicare such as routine physical examinations, health screenings and vision services etc., Medicare Advantage Plans include Medicare Health Maintenance Organizations (HMOs), Medicare Preferred Provider Organization Plans (PPOs) and other Medicare plans.

Medicare Prescription Drug Coverage (coverage starts January 1, 2006)

Medicare prescription drug coverage is insurance provided by private companies that have been approved by Medicare. Starting January 1, 2006, new Medicare prescription drug coverage will be available to everyone with Medicare. The drug coverage will help pay for prescription drug costs. Most beneficiaries will pay a monthly premium, an annual deductible and copayments. People with limited income and resources may qualify for help paying for their monthly premium and other costs.

Who is eligible to enroll in Medicare Prescription Drug Coverage?

You are eligible for Medicare prescription drug coverage if you are eligible for Medicare Part A or enrolled in Medicare Part B.

Do I have to join a Medicare prescription drug plan?

No. Joining a Medicare prescription drug plan is your choice..

However, if you don't join a Medicare prescription drug plan by May 15, 2006, and you do not currently have drug coverage that is at least as good as standard Medicare prescription drug coverage, you will have to wait until November 15, 2006 to join. When you do join, your premium cost will go up at least 1% per month for every month that you wait to join. You must pay this penalty as long as you have Medicare prescription drug coverage.

When can I join?

If you are already Medicare eligible, you can join a Medicare prescription drug plan between November 15, 2005 and May 15, 2006. If you join by December 31, 2005, Medicare prescription drug coverage will begin January 1st 2006. If you join after that, coverage will be effective the first day of the month after the month you join. The next open enrollment period is November 15th 2006 to December 31, 2006 for coverage to take effect January 1, 2007.

How much will a Medicare prescription drug plan cost?

You will pay:

- a monthly premium (generally around $30 in 2006)
- a yearly deductible (up to $250 in 2006)

SHINE Counseling Program of the Executive Office of Elder Affairs
November, 2005

- a copayment for your prescriptions

Costs will vary depending on which drug plan you choose. If you have limited income and resources and qualify for extra help, you may not have to pay a premium or deductibles.

Where can you get help or more information if you need it?

Medicare Supplement Insurance (“Medigap”)

Medigap policy is a health insurance policy sold by private insurance companies to individuals enrolled in the Original Medicare Plan to cover the “gaps” in the Original Medicare Plan such as, coinsurance, copayments and deductibles. Some Medigap policies also cover benefits that the Original Medicare Plan does not cover, like emergency health care while traveling outside the United States. The front of the Medigap policy must clearly define it as “Medicare Supplement Insurance.” Individual Medigap insurance coverage and text is standard for all insurers.

The three standard Medigap policies sold in Massachusetts are listed below. See attached Medicare Supplement charts for details.

1. Medicare Supplement Core
2. Medicare Supplement 1 (no outpatient prescription drug coverage)
3. Medicare Supplement 2 (unlimited outpatient prescription drug coverage) If you disenroll from Supplement 2, you cannot re-enroll in Supplement 2 in the future.

In compliance with Federal regulations, Medicare Supplement 2 policies covering prescription drugs cannot be sold after December 31, 2005. However existing members may remain enrolled. By remaining enrolled, existing members will continue to have prescription drug coverage.

Medigap policies are regulated by federal and state laws.

- Medigap policies are guaranteed renewable and cannot be cancelled unless the beneficiary stops paying the premium or provides false information on the application when they buy the policy.
- Medigap insurers cannot refuse to sell a policy, exclude or limit coverage, or require a waiting period before coverage starts due to existing health problems.
- Medigap plans must offer the same premium (a “community rate”) to all policyholders and cannot charge a different premium based on age or health problems.
- Under the Massachusetts “Ban on Balance billing” law licensed physicians cannot collect more than the Medicare approved charge for any Medicare service provided to a Medicare beneficiary.

Who Can Buy A Medigap Policy?

Any Massachusetts resident enrolled in Medicare Part A and Part B may buy Medigap insurance in Massachusetts except for individuals under age 65 who are eligible for Medicare solely due to End-Stage Renal Disease.

You do not need to buy a Medigap policy if you are enrolled in a Medicare Advantage plan.

When Can You Buy Medigap Insurance?

You can purchase Medigap insurance during one of the following Medigap enrollment periods:

- a. The annual open enrollment period starts February 1st and ends March 31st. Benefits for people who enroll during the annual open enrollment period begin June 1st.

- b. Special enrollment periods may be scheduled by Medigap insurers if approved by the Massachusetts Division of Insurance.
- c. A six month open enrollment period begins from the date person becomes “initially eligible” for coverage in Massachusetts. A person becomes initially eligible on the date when they:
- first enroll in Medicare Part B; or
 - lose employer sponsored health coverage for active employees due to:
 - termination of employment; or
 - employer bankruptcy; or
 - discontinuation of employer sponsored health coverage offered to similarly situated employees; or
 - covered by an HMO but then moved out of the HMO service area; or
 - became a resident of Massachusetts
- d. A 63 day enrollment period begins when a person:
- has employer health insurance coverage that pays second to Medicare but the coverage was stopped or is about to be stopped, or
 - loses retiree health insurance coverage, or
 - has a Medigap policy end due to an involuntary termination, or
 - is insured by a Medigap policy or Medicare HMO and the company or its agent misrepresents the policy’s terms and conditions during marketing or substantially violates a provision of its policy or contract; or
 - is enrolled in their first Medicare HMO plan and decides to disenroll (for any reason) from the plan within the first 12 months of enrollment.
 - If a person cancels a Medigap policy to join the HMO, the person cannot get a Supplement 2 policy back, but could choose a Core policy or Supplement 1 policy instead.
 - If a person selects a Medicare HMO as their first choice, that person may select any Medigap policy offered for sale in the state. To avoid a break in coverage, that person can apply for Medigap insurance up to 60 days before the actual HMO disenrollment date.
- e. A five-month open enrollment period occurs if a person is enrolled in a Medicare HMO or Elder Service Plan that announces it will stop doing business in their area as of December 31st. If this happens, the Medigap open enrollment period would begin upon the receipt of an October 2nd notification letter from the plan and end March 4 of the following year.
